

IS-ENES3 Autumn School October 2020

Aims

- Make IS-ENES knowledge available across Europe
- Enhance interaction between climate scientists and impact researchers

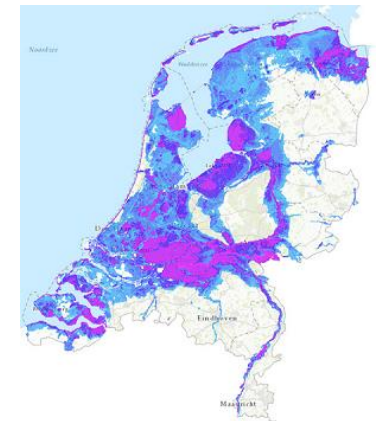

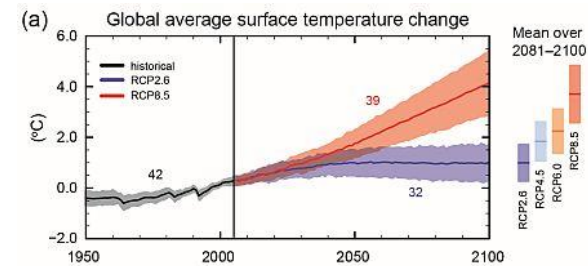

Target groups

- Vulnerability, Impact, Adaptation researchers (VIA)
- Climate service providers
- Climate researchers

Preliminary programme

Day 1	Day 2	Day 3	Day 4	Day 5
Climate data	Climate impact studies	Case studies	Climate4Impact	Case studies
Climate models	Climate services	Excursion	Case studies	Evaluation
History of climate models and data

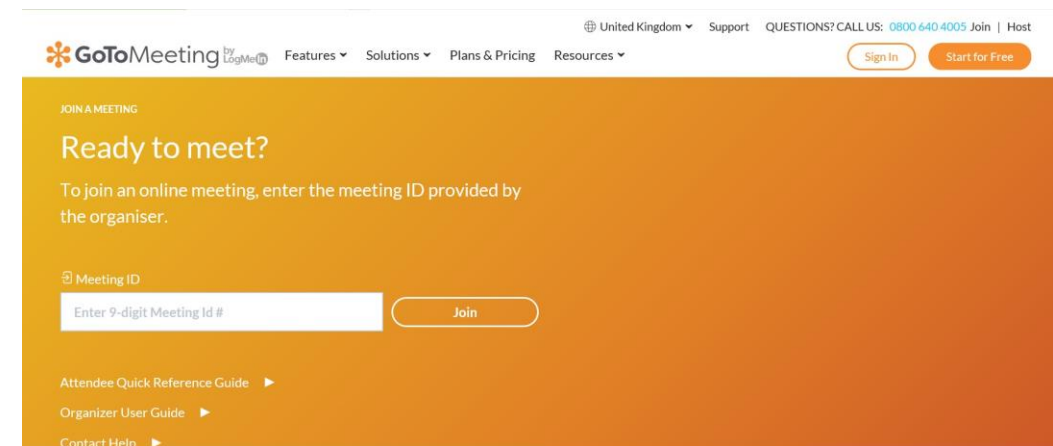

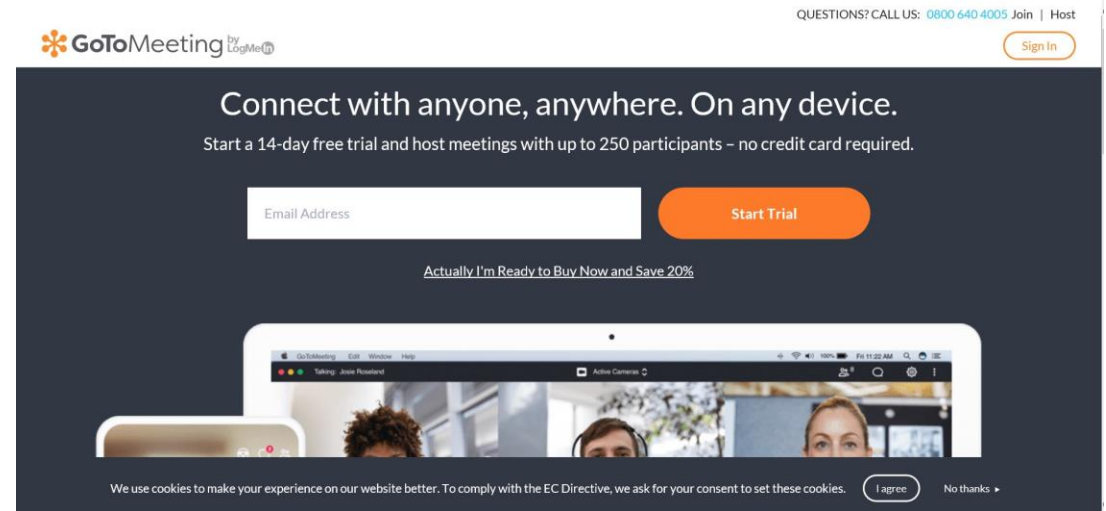

Prague, October 2020

Programme subsession Autumn school

27 March 14:30-15:30

- Explanation of programme
 - Who will participate in teaching
 - Reflection on programme
 - Ways to advertise the school
-
- Questions for now?

THE CONSORTIUM

Coordinated by CNRS-IPSL, the IS-ENES3 project gathers 22 partners in 11 countries

This project has received funding from the European Union's Horizon 2020 research and innovation programme under grant agreement N°824084

Our website

<https://is.enes.org/>

Follow us on Twitter !

@ISENES_RI

Contact us at

is-enes@ipsl.fr

Join the community on ZENODO !